Commissions in the Volunteer Association of the Parish of Saint George, Bloomsbury, signed by His Majesty. Dated September 26, 1800.

FIRST Lieutenant James Carmichael Smyth to be Captain, vice Hyde, resigned.
John Wright, Gent. to be Second Lieutenant.

St. James's, October 6, 1800.

THE following Address has been presented to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Merchants of England trading into the Levant Seas, and others, residing at Constantinople, in Factory assembled, presume to unite our distant Voice to that of the Rest of our Countrymen upon a Circumstance of which the first Tidings have needed repeated Confirmation to obtain entire Credit.

No less edified by the exemplary Virtues which adorn your Royal Person, than grateful for the Blessings we enjoy under your auspicious Reign, we are penetrated with Horror at the foul Attempt which we learn has gone nigh to transform the Home we look forward to as the Seat of Happiness into a House of Mourning, and the prosperous Community we are proud to be Members of, into a Scene of Crime and Confusion.

Receiving Information from our Country at distant and uncertain Intervals, we are doomed to suffer much Anxiety and Suspense as to the real Nature and Extent of the Guilt, of which we hope and trust the Laws of the Land, have, by this Time, absolved or avenged the Nation. But we yield to the Impulse of Allegiance in offering to your Majesty this Testimony of the Loyalty and Gratitude of those who feel indebted to your Majesty's Name for the Consideration and Advantages they collectively and individually enjoy, as Englishmen, in the Eyes of Foreigners, and this unfeigned Assurance of your being no less dear to a Portion of your Subjects in a remote Situation, than to the Mass of your People who daily enjoy your paternal Presence, appearing in the Midst of them with that Confidence in their Duty and Affection, which we pray may never be enfeebled by the Atrocity of a single gloomy Desperado. Spencer Smith, Chairman.

Constantinople, July 5, 1800.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Grenville.]

St. James's, October 6, 1800.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to the Duke of Portland, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, has been by his Grace presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Clergy of His Majesty's most ancient Colony of Barbadoes.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Clergy of your most ancient Colony of Barbadoes, beg Leave to pour out, before your Majesty, the warmest Effusions of our Souls, in devout Acknowledgment of the Divine Goodness, which has so graciously preserved your sacred Person from the late daring, horrid, and treasonable Attempt, which has been made against it.

Accustomed as we have been, from our earliest Infancy, to consider our Sovereign as the natural Guardian of those innumerable Blessings which render the Name of Briton one of the most flattering Distinctions upon Earth, we turn with Indignation, and lament, we cannot add, with Incredulity, from the Idea, that a Miscreant could possibly exist, under your Majesty's paternal Protection, hardened to such a Degree of traitorous Desperation as to lift his parricidal Hand against a Life so dear to Virtue, so important to Religion, so inestimable to us all.

But though a general Dissolution of Manners, Perversion of Principle, and growing Spirit of Sedition and Impiety, may, in other Nations, have led the Way to Catastrophes, which, as Men and Christians, we most feelingly deplore, we have too much Confidence in their tried Integrity, untainted Loyalty, and conscientious Regard to every Civil and religious Duty, to conceive that our Fellow

Subjects, who have the Happineſs of ſuch near Acceſs to your Royal Perſon, can for a Moment heſitate to rally unanimouſly round it; to convince your Enemies by the impenetrable Rampart they will form for its Defence, that how unſeaſonably ſoever they may exult at this atrocious Outrage, your Majeſty is too ſtrongly fortified in the Affections of your People, and above all, too powerfully ſupported by the Arm of the Almighty, for any Combination of Traitors to be more ſucceſsful in their nefarious Purpoſes than this ſolitary Regicide, in whom we truſt the Sword of Juſtice has, by this Time, cut off the laſt Conſpirator againſt your Majeſty's Repoſe, and the conſequent Felicity of an anxious Nation.

That the ſame gracious Being who has ſo providentially preſerved, may as mercifully protract your Majeſty's Exiſtence to the lateſt Period; and, when your earthly one is to be finally exchanged for a Crown of Glory, that the former may deſcend to remoteſt Ages through the long Line of your auguſt Poſterity, is the united, the inceſſant Prayer of your faithful Clergy and their reſpective Congregations, who are devoted to your Majeſty, your illuſtrious Family, and your auſpicious Government, by every Bond of Allegiance, Principle of Attachment, and Motive of Religion.

Signed at the unanimous Deſire of a General Meeting of the Clergy of Barbadoes, July 22, 1800.

F. Fitchatt, Rector of St. James's, Chairman.

[Tranſmitted by John Brathwaite, Eſq.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Preſident, Council, and Aſſembly, and of the Inhabitants at large of His Majeſty's moſt ancient Colony of Barbadoes.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Preſident, Council, and Aſſembly of this your Majeſty's moſt ancient Colony, for ourſelves and in Behalf of the Inhabitants of Barbadoes at large, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne with our united and cordial Congratulations on your Majeſty's providential Eſcape from the late treaſonable Attempt againſt your Royal Perſon.

Feeling as we do, even in this remote Corner of your Dominions, the benign Influence of your Majeſty's very mild and equitable Adminiſtration, we contemplate with Horror and Indignation this atrocious Attack upon the beſt of Sovereigns, and participate moſt heartily in the general Effuſion of Joy which your Majeſty's happy Preſervation from ſuch imminent Danger has ſo juſtly excited.

May that Providence, whoſe merciful Interpoſition thus graciouſly vouchſafed to us on this eventful Occaſion, we acknowledge with the humbleſt and devouteſt Gratitude, continue to your Majeſty his Divine Favor and Protection, and long preſerve a Life ſo eſſential to the Proſperity of your Subjects, and ſo important to the ſacred Intereſts of Virtue and Religion.

By Order of the Houſe of Aſſembly,
Joſhua Gittens, Speaker.

[Tranſmitted by John Brathwaite, Eſq.]

Downing-Street, October 6, 1800.

ADDRESSES, of which the following are Copies, have been received by the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department, from Brigadier-General Picton, commanding His Majeſty's Troops in the Iſland of Trinidad, which Addreſſes have been preſented to His Majeſty and moſt graciouſly received:

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

IMpreſſed with the moſt unbounded Gratitude to the Almighty for His Divine Interpoſition in averting the late diabolical and traitorous Attempt on the ſacred Perſon of your Majeſty, and warmly participating in the general Joy diffuſed throughout your Majeſty's Dominions in its Defeat, we your Majeſty's moſt faithful, loyal, and dutiful Subjects, the Merchants, Planters, and other Reſidents in the Iſland of Trinidad, beg Leave to lay the Homage of our moſt fervent Congratulations thereon at your Majeſty's Feet.

Unalterably attached, by Principle and Duty, to your Majeſty and your illuſtrious Houſe, every Event hoſtile to the Peace and Happineſs of any of your auguſt Family, cannot fail of exciting our Concern, and affecting our moſt active Feelings. What then muſt be our Indignation and Horror, when the Dæmon of Treaſon rears its baneful Shaft at the Life of our Father, Protector, and Friend!

That the ſame merciful and omnipotent Providence may continue to watch over a Life ſo juſtly dear to us all; and that your Majeſty may long reign over a brave, loyal, happy, and grateful People, is the ardent Prayer of, Sire, &c.

Signed by all the principal Merchants, Planters, and other Reſidents in the Iſland of Trinidad.
Trinidad, July 14, 1800.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's faithful Subjects, the Cabildo of Trinidad, in Council aſſembled, beg Leave to approach the Throne with our ſincere Congratulations on the ſignal Interpoſition of Divine Providence, in preſerving a Life not leſs dear to us than to your Majeſty's ancient Subjects.

We can never reflect upon the Horror and Miſeries we have eſcaped, and the Tranquillity and Happineſs we have experienced under your Majeſty's juſt and equitable Government, without feeling ourſelves perſonally intereſted in the Preſervation of your ſacred Perſon; which we pray the Lord to preſerve for many Years.

Signed by the Cabildo in Council.
